

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Jérôme P. Chauvin

Jérôme P. Chauvin has been working for BUSINESSSEUROPE since 1996. He occupied various positions at BUSINESSSEUROPE and is now Deputy Director General. He is heading both the Legal Affairs and the Internal Market departments.

Prior to working at BUSINESSSEUROPE, he acquired experience in the field of legal affairs by working at the European Commission and for the College of Europe. His area of expertise covers company law, corporate governance, consumer affairs, intellectual property law, competition policy, state aid, public procurement, internal market, etc. He is a member of BUSINESSSEUROPE managing team.

Jérôme graduated in Private Law and in Business Law and EU Law from Nancy University, Lancaster University and College of Europe in Bruges. Jérôme's mother tongue is French and he is fluent in English and Spanish.

BUSINESSSEUROPE is a European business organization representing more than 20 million small, medium and large companies. It is also an European Social Partner.