COMPANY PROFILE

The ALCO Group has high specification, state-of-the-art aluminium systems of high quality and aesthetic appeal covering the whole range of building applications. The Group's structure includes large aluminium profile manufacturing industries and commercial companies both in Greece and abroad.

EXPORTS

The Group exports to Germany and other European countries. From the analysis of company sales it is revealed that international sales accounted for 96.28% of the turnover in 2011.

KEY INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

The Group has a solid exporting profile, with its turnover in 2011 in Germany being higher than that in 2010 despite the financial crisis in Europe. Additionally, the companies of the Group have been awarded with many quality certifications not only for their products but their state-of-the-art laboratory equipment, too.
