

CHRISTOS STAIKOURAS
ALTERNATE MINISTER OF FINANCE

Assistant Professor of Finance at the Athens University of Economics and Business.

Holds a Bachelor degree from School of Mechanical Engineering (National Technical University of Athens), a Master in Business Administration (MBA), from Imperial College of Science, Technology and Medicine, University of London and a PhD in Banking, from the Department of Banking and Finance, Cass Business School, City University.

Since 2007 he is an MP of Nea Demokratia Political Party, in Fthiotida.

From June 2012 he was appointed as Alternate Minister of Finance. During his parliamentary activity he was Alternate Head of Economic Policy of Nea Demokratia, member of the Standing Committees on Economic Affairs, Financial Statement and General Balance Sheet of the State. He is also a member of the working group of Economic and Social Policy of European People's Party. Assistant Professor of Finance at the Athens University of Economics and Business.

He was part time academic staff at the Hellenic Open University (2004-2007), Lecturer at the Athens University of Economics and Business (2002-2006), Visiting Professor at the Universities of Thessaly (2004), Athens (2002), and City (1999). He has staffed places of high responsibility in recognized prestige financial organizations, as are Eurobank (2000-2004) and the Bank of England (2000).

Member of the Central Committee of ND (2004-2007) and of the Central Committee of ONNED (ND youth organization) (1998-2001). He was an elected representative of the student union of the National Technical University of Athens and responsible for ND students' movement DAP-NDFK (1993-1996).

He was founding member and member of the Committee of the Hellenic Centre for the Promotion of the European Completion.

He has published many scientific articles in Greece and abroad and has participated in many scientific international conferences presenting his papers.

Member of many scientific and research societies and committees.