

EVANGELOS PTEROUDIS

Operations Manager of Pancretan Cooperative Bank

Mr Pteroudis is Operations Manager of Pancretan Cooperative Bank since 2009, with responsibilities including Marketing, Loan Administration, Network Management, Bancassurance, Legal, Co – Financed Programs. In its responsibilities are also included the management of the relationships of the Bank with European Investment Bank, European Investment Fund, ETEAN, Export Credit Insurance Organization. Since November 2011 he is also managing the implementation of the JESSICA initiative in the Region of Crete.

He was previously responsible in the same Bank, for marketing and business development coordination, in the field of banking competition, new products design and strategic management.

Mr Pteroudis has a high level academic background, with economic and social studies in Université de Lausanne. He has also worked in the commercial department of a Trading company in South Africa, in the Corporate Department of XiosBank , in the Custody Department and the in Marketing Departement of HSBC Greece. With an overall experience of over 15 year in the banking sector, his fields of expertise are related to: Strategic Marketing, New Products, co-financed programs, Corporate Financing, Processes and procedures design