

ANASTASIA STAMOU

Legal Advisor, Hellenic Exchanges

Anastasia (Natassa) Stamou is Legal Advisor to the Hellenic Exchanges Group since 1999. Her area of expertise includes listings of new investment products, operation of MTF's, listed companies' corporate actions and corporate governance.

Natassa is a member of the the Evaluation Committee of the Alternative Market (MTF) of the Athens Exchange and a member of the Executive Committee of the Hellenic Corporate Governance Council.

Natassa participates in several legal-drafting committees, working groups and public consultation committees, preparing proposals for the development of the Greek capital market.

She is a Contributor, as an expert for company law and investor protection, to the World Bank Doing Business project.

Natassa is guest speaker in numerous legal and economic conferences.

She is a graduate of the Faculty of Law of the University of Athens (1990) and has also completed post-graduate studies at the University of Southampton (LL.M 1995) in Company law, IT law and International Business Law. Her thesis (1995) treated the publication of prospectus in an IPO, with emphasis on the level of investor protection.

She is married and a mother of two daughters.