COMPANY PROFILE

The company is active in the fields of agricultural technology, that are research & development, production and distribution of advanced quality seeds and seedlings, offering to professional farmers seeds of vegetables and field crops.

The product range of field crops includes cotton, corn, alfalfa and sunflower, while the vegetables include both Greenhouse and Open field crops, such as tomato, pepper, eggplant, watermelon, melon, squash & cucumber. Our research is working hard, trying to achieve maximization of nature's potential through innovative new seed products. Our research is conducted by an extensive network of breeders and scientists in twelve countries, so to ensure the wide genetic basin and adaptability of the developed products. Production also is spread in a number of countries in the north and the south hemisphere so to ensure availability round the year. The Company's subsidiaries are in Cyprus, Turkey, Bulgaria & Spain.

7 billion of people on this planet today depend on the production of food that farmers grow in order to fight hunger. In the next 30 years farmers will need to grow a multiple quantity of food to feed all people on the planet expected to be 12 billion.

REVENUE ANALYSIS (in € 000)

The company operations are spread all over the world in order to create products for a wide range of climatic requirements, and in order to support sales all over the Mediterranean region and the Greater Middle East.

Company's exports represent 30.48% of total sales in 2015.

KEY INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

The Company is entering new markets with new products every year. It anticipates significant development in Sales Revenues and Profits as its enlarged commercial operations are geared up.

Spirou Co now has a pipeline of regionally appropriate corn, sunflower, cotton, alfalfa and vegetable seeds with superior characteristics than those currently available in the market. The first of its novel products have already been introduced the recent years and in the next few years several more seed product launches with market-beating characteristics are planned, in all around Mediterranean markets.

In the light of the company's R&D activities, SPIROU regards its priority markets for mid-term (2013-2016) commercial development as Turkey, Bulgaria, Romania, Ukraine, Russia, Saudi Arabia and Egypt.

We are delivering to farmers innovative seeds to meet requirements of sustainable agriculture. Spirou Co is helping farmers to improve agricultural practice, produce more food and improve lives.
