

BANK OF GREECE
EUROSYSTEM

Disclosure of Regulated Information under Law 3556/2007

The Bank of Greece, in accordance with Article 14 of Law 3556/2007 and further to the relevant notification it received on 12 August 2020, announces that, by virtue of Article 1 of Law 4670/2020 (Government Gazette A 43) – which inserted a new Article 51A into Law 4387/2016 (Government Gazette A 85) – the legal person in public law “Unified Social Security Fund (EFKA)”, was renamed to “Electronic National Social Security Fund”, abbreviated to “e-EFKA”, with effect from 1 March 2020.

Furthermore, by that provision and with effect from the same date as above, the legal person in public law “Unified Fund for Supplementary Insurance and Lump-Sum Retirement Benefits (ETEAEP)” was abolished and integrated into e-EFKA as its quasi-universal successor. The Supplementary Insurance Division and the Lump-Sum Retirement Benefits Division of ETEAEP were integrated into e-EFKA with full financial, accounting and property independence each. In this regard, Article 6 of Law 4670/2020 - which inserted a new Article 70A into Law 4387/2016 - stipulated that the total assets and liabilities formerly owned by the Supplementary Insurance Division and the Lump-Sum Retirement Benefits Division of ETEAEP that are now being integrated, as well as their movable and immovable property, shall automatically be transferred to the respective independent divisions of e-EFKA, i.e. to e-EFKA’s Supplementary Insurance Division and Lump-Sum Retirement Benefits Division, as their universal successors.

As a result of the aforementioned quasi-universal succession, on 7 August 2020:

- (a) the Main Insurance & Other Benefits Division of e-EFKA held and continues to hold 1,264,099 shares of the Bank of Greece, i.e. 6.3635% of the Bank’s share capital, carrying 16,854.653 voting rights, i.e. 6.3635% of total voting rights;
- (b) the Supplementary Insurance Division of e-EFKA holds the 474,318 shares of the Bank of Greece that belonged to the former Supplementary Insurance Division of ETEAEP, i.e. 2.3877% of the Bank’s share capital, carrying 6,324.24 voting rights, i.e. 2.3877% of total voting rights; and
- (c) the Lump-Sum Retirement Benefits Division of e-EFKA holds the 732,821 shares of the Bank of Greece which belonged to the former Lump-Sum Retirement Benefits Division of ETEAEP, i.e. 3.6890% of the Bank’s share capital, carrying 9,770.946 voting rights, i.e. 3.6890% of total voting rights.

Overall, as of 7 August 2020, the e-EFKA owns 2,471,238 shares of the Bank of Greece, i.e. 12.4402% of the Bank's share capital. These shares carry 32,949.84 voting rights, i.e. 12.4402% of total voting rights.

According to Article 13 of the Statute of the Bank of Greece, seventy-five (75) shares provide to their holder a right of one (1) vote.

Athens, 13 August 2020

Human Resources and Organisation Department

Secretariat Section