Space Hellas: Four Awards from Cisco for Greece, “Collaboration Partner of the Year” for the region of South Europe

Space Hellas is very pleased to announce that it has received multiple honorary distinctions from Cisco at the 2021 Annual Awards announced by the company for its partners.

With the four awards, “Collaboration Partner of the Year”, Software Partner of the Year, “Enterprise Partner of the Year” and “Customer Experience Partner of the Year”, Space Hellas stood out for its performance in Greece, while it was also distinguished with the “Collaboration Partner of the Year” award in the European South Region, namely in Greece, Cyprus, Malta, Italy, Israel, Portugal and Spain.

“We are very proud to be among Cisco’s world-renowned partners whom it honors with its awards for outstanding performance. Multiple distinctions express moral satisfaction for us, in the constant effort to achieve new goals, but also the commitment to face even greater challenges. However, they also express the practical confirmation of a strong cooperation and mutual relationship of trust that we have developed for a long time with Cisco, for the benefit of our customers”, stressed Dr. Ioannis Mertzanis, CEO of Space Hellas.

Space Hellas, a Cisco Gold Certified Partner, presenting multiple distinctions in its long-term partnership with Cisco and numerous certifications at a high level of know-how, constitutes the most experienced and trusted partner for organizations wishing to invest in innovative technologies for their digital transformation.
