INTRALOT announces extension of contract with La Marocaine Des Jeux et Des Sports for lottery games

January 19, 2024

INTRALOT announces the extension of the contract between INTRALOT Maroc, a subsidiary of the INTRALOT Group, and La Marocaine Des Jeux et des Sports (MDJS), a state lottery offering sports betting and other games of chance in Morocco, for up to two additional years. The contract is now due to expire on 31.12.2025.

INTRALOT Maroc will continue to operate MDJS's popular lottery games Tifo and Chrono, which will be distributed through an optimized network of points of sales, using the existing technology infrastructures and according to the highest international standards.

INTRALOT has been present in the gaming market of Morocco since 2010 and is proud to continue its presence in the country.
