

Athens, 10.12.2024

In response to the 10.12.2024 letter from Hellenic Capital Market Commission's regarding today's online media news about a purported acquisition of Barba Stathis by IDEAL Holdings, we inform you that IDEAL Holdings is always examining potential new investments, strictly adhering to its legal obligations as a listed company.

In this context, we inform the investing public that, as of today, there is no information to announce regarding our activities, in accordance with applicable legislation. Should any information arise that must be disclosed for the information of the investing public, IDEAL Holdings will make timely announcements as required by law, as it consistently does in such cases.
